

Memorandum of Understanding
Among
Sociedad Argentina de Radiologia
And
American Institute for Radiologic Pathology

This Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") is effective on date of last signature below among the Sociedad Argentina de Radiologia (SAR) and Federacion Argentina de Radiologia (FAARDIT), both professional societies located in Argentina, acting as one for this purpose and henceforth referred to as SAR/FAARDIT; and American Institute for Radiologic Pathology (AIRP), a nonprofit corporation with its principal place of business at 1891 Preston White Drive, Reston VA USA 20191-4326.

1. Purpose. The parties will collaborate to present and support a radiologic-pathologic course ("Course") during the Argentine Congress of Diagnostic Imaging 2018, in Buenos Aires on September 27-29, 2018.
2. AIRP Responsibilities. AIRP will provide the following to support the Course:
 - a. Airfare (one economy class fare) with all taxes and associated fees for one faculty.
 - b. AIRP will create a financial report (invoice) and provide the report to SAR/FAARDIT within sixty (60) days of course's end date.
 - c. AIRP advertisement of the course on its web site. AIRP will extend a 2-for-1 tuition discount for three years (2018-2020) to all SAR/FAARDIT residents who wish to attend the AIRP 4-week course in Silver Spring, Maryland. There is no limit to the number of residents who can participate in the offer. For example, SAR/FAARDIT, may send four (4) residents for the price of two (2); six (6) for the price of three (3).
 - d. AIRP will send to SAR/FAARDIT's winner of the Best Case competition a free seat to one of AIRP's 4-week courses.
 - e. AIRP will send to the SAR/FAARDIT's finalists of the Best Case competition a fifty (50) percent discount code to use with their registration.
3. SAR/FAARDIT Responsibilities: SAR/FAARDIT will provide the following to support the Course:
 - a. All ground transfers within Argentina related to the SAR/FAARDIT conference with all associated taxes and fees.
 - b. Five Hundred Dollars ($500 US) for faculty to cover meals; ground transportation to and from U.S. airports and reciprocity fee.
 - c. Hotel accommodations with internet and all associated taxes and fees for four (4) nights in Buenos Aires, Argentina.
 - d. Advertising opportunities such as recruitment to AIRP courses, emails of course attendees for AIRP newsletter subscription, booth space at course, and display of the AIRP logo between lectures and during breaks.
 - e. SAR will send to AIRP the name of the SAR/FAARDIT's Best Case winner.
 - f. SAR will send to AIRP the names of the finalists for SAR/FAARDIT's Best Case competition.
 - g. Logistical and IT support for the Course.
 - h. Faculty course dinner.
 - i. Ten (10) percent administrative fee on Course expenses that AIRP incurs.
